VOL. XXIX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1901. 9 A M

NO. 60

MIDDLEBURG.

The members of Epworth League met at the M. E. Church Sunday.

A very delightful and enjoyable apple peeling social was given at Mr. Ab Hall's Saturday night.

Recent rains have greatly revived pastures and late vegetables. Corn is fast ripening and farmers are saving more provender than for years.

Mr. J. C. Collinsworth will have a sale at his residence near Mt. Olive on Friday. It is Mr. C.'s intention to leave the quietude of farm life for the more bustling life of the city.

Ross Ramsey, of Yosemite, a widower of probably 40, and Miss Nora Ray, 30, were united in holy bonds of wedlock Sunday. Rev. Hardin Newell officiated. They left at once for Wayne county, where the groom is working.

Edgar Miller is having quite a tussle with typhoid fever. Miss Ella Ferrell, who has been quite ill the past few weeks, is now out of danger. Uncle Elsie Gifford has been very poorly the past few days, suffering from rheumatism and other infirmities of old age.

The teachers and others interested in educational affairs, shouldn't forget the meeting here Saturday when a large attendance is expected. A most interesting program will be rendered. We understand there will be a social in the evening, the elite from the four winds being most cordially invited to be present.

Revs. J. Q. Montgomery and Williams are conducting a very successful series of meetings at the Christian church at Liberty and great interest is being taken. The sanctificationists have also captured our county seat and pitched a large tent, where they are holding services nightly and drawing crowds equal to sticking plaster.

The democratic precinct committee met Saturday and unanimously nominated T. S. Benson for justice of the peace. With a united democracy his election is assured. Squire J. A. Wall and W. T. Coulter, the defeated candidates, are good democrats and will readily acquiesce to the action of the committee, thus making assurance doubly sure of victory.

It indeed pains us to think that there are men who in hard fought battles in the past, who never showed the least signs of weakening, with a democracy unquestionable and whose every pride was their strict adherence to the grand principles of the party of Jefferson, Jackson and Bryan, would let prejudice and malice get the upper hand in local affairs, as some few we know in Casey and Lincoln counties.

The doctors now report Albert Bastin out of danger and on a fair road to recovery. Nothing has been seen or heard of young Wall. We understand that no extensive search is being made since the change for the better in the condition of the wounded boy. Wishing to be fair to all and partial to none, we desire to make a more modified statement. It seems that young Bastin and Crenshaw Wall had already "mixed" before the stabbing took place. We have also learned since that the $100 reward reported offered, while subscribed, was never actually given in, consequently there is now no reward out.

Several of our citizens attended court at Liberty Monday. Miss Rose Alcorn, of Hustonville and the Misses White, of Stanford visited Miss Lizzie Wheat Saturday and Sunday. E. V. Lovelace returned to his home in Somerset Tuesday. William Stephens wife and children of Newton, Kan., who have been visiting relatives here the past few weeks, returned to their Western home Monday. Mr. and Mrs. John Eason have returned to their home in Garrard county. G. W. Drye is in Cincinnati on business. Revs. Logan Godbey and Joshua Taylor are attending the M. E. Conference at Ashland. Misses Effie and Margie Sandidge, of Shelby City, are visiting Mrs. Mollie Durham. Sherman Lawhorn has moved to Lexington, where he will attend College. Your correspondent was in Liberty Monday.

Centennial exercises at the Baptist church were a success in all that the word implies, though there was much disappointment over the fact that very few of those on the program were present, but others were substituted and the program somewhat modified. Monday night our people were given a treat in the form of a free lecture by the Rev. Earle D. Simms, of Fai Au Fee, Shantung Province, China. Brother Simms has lately returned from the mission fields in China, where he labored some six or eight years and was there during the Boxer uprising of last year and gives some very interesting and hair's breadth escapes. He has been laboring in foreign fields for the past 12 years and has traveled throughout Mexico, the Central and South American republics, Hawaii, Japan, India, Korea and China—in fact all over the world, and being a forcible speaker, his lecture was most graphic and interesting to all who were fortunate enough to hear him. Rev. Simms is assisting Bro. Ferrell in a series of meetings, which will be conducted solely on evangelistic lines and all christian people, no matter of what persuasion, are earnestly requested to take part. Large audiences greet the speakers at both the night and day services and a world of good is sure to crown their untiring efforts so freely exhibited. C. C.

Former Gov. Robert L. Taylor, of Tennessee, and Mrs. Alice Pitts Hall, of Montgomery, Ala., were married in Christ Church in Tuscaloosa, Ala. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left at once for Louisville and other cities, after which they will be at their home in Knoxville until Oct. 15, when Mr. Taylor will begin his lecture tour.

Mr. Albert H. Severance attended the marriage of Miss Nannette Heath at Lexington Wednesday to Mr. C. W. McKennon, a prominent druggist of Waco, Texas. Dr. E. O. Guerrant performed the ceremony at Mrs. Nannie Embry's, on Main Street, where only a few intimate friends had been invited. Mr. Severance tells us that the pair were recipients of a large number of costly presents.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR DYSENTERY AND DIARRHOEA.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased the bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again, last summer, I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

The precious woods and rubber trees of our new possessions in the Orient are of incalculable value, says an expert just back from Manila. There are single trees in the islands which are worth $10,000, and all varieties of high-grade woods flourish there.

The following strong resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Knox county democratic convention in session Tuesday:

The democrats of Knox county, now in county convention assembled, share with all other democrats in every quarter of this great country the keenest sorrow because of the assassination of our late President McKinley. We denounce the cruel act of the cowardly anarchist who took the life of our president. We denounce assassination whenever and wherever or by whomsoever committed. True to the teachings of our party, we are for the maintenance of law and its just and speedy enforcement by the properly constituted courts of the land to the end that the good of society and the safety of the citizen may be preserved, and that our country and people may not again suffer the loss, shame and humiliation which every assassination brings to all right-thinking persons. We would urge and teach a strict observance of the law, and we condemn the motive and purpose of those who hold it in contempt.

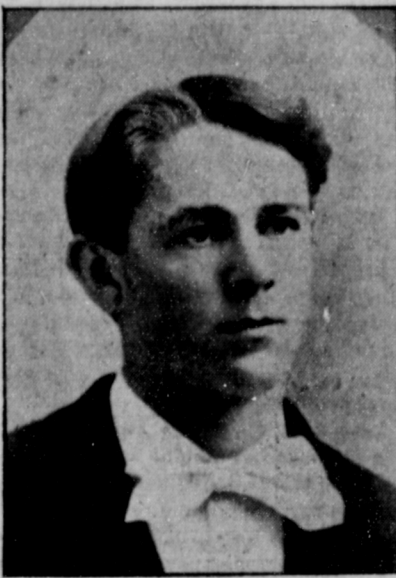

James D. Black, W. R. Ballinger, J. N. Bradford, W. S. Woodson, E. E. Prichard, committee.

NOTHING LIKE OIL.

"In dealing with man, remember that a spoonful of oil will go farther than a gallon of vinegar." The same may be said of children. There is nothing so good for children as the old-fashioned castor oil. However much they may abhor it, it is their best medicine for disorders of the bowels. In the more severe cases of diarrhoea and dysentery, however, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given after the oil operates and a quick cure is sure to follow. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

The centennial celebration of Daniel Webster's graduation from Dartmouth College was held Wednesday in Hanover, N. H. The degree of LL. D. was conferred on Booker Washington.

For a bad taste in the mouth take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

H. ROWAN SAUFLEY.

Bears the distinction of being the youngest and only unmarried man in the INTERIOR JOURNAL office and how a man of such good bearing has kept single as long as he has is a mystery to us. Mr. Saufley has been with this paper six years and is as fond of it and the other gentlemen in the office as they are of him. He is steady, has a good ear for news and possesses the knowledge of how to prepare it after he gets it. He is as prompt and regular in business as clock work and nothing but illness will keep him from his post of duty. He is willing to work as long as it is necessary and long ago made up his mind to do well, whatever his hand finds to do. Mr. Saufley is the youngest of the best force on any newspaper in any State and it is needless to say that the writer is both proud and appreciative of such a group of young men who labor for the interest of the INTERIOR JOURNAL. Mr. Saufley was the first young man in Lincoln county to offer his services in the war with Spain and while he took part in no engagement, his record in the army was such as to bring him from the rank of a private soldier to that of a commissioned officer.

LANCASTER.

On Tuesday Lutes & Co. shipped to Jim Kerns at Winchester, a load of 800-pound cattle. The price was not given.

Rev. J. B. Crouch, of Stanford, and Rev. Pike, of Brodhead, are over to begin a protracted meeting at Buckeye. The people of that section are sure of a good revival under the preaching of two such good men.

Harry Campbell and Joe Hutchings, charged with firing into a wagon of hemp hands, were held in a $500 bond, which they could not give and were sent to jail. The other two boys were cleared. Warrants were issued for Campbell and Hutchings for carrying concealed weapons and for furnishing whisky to minors.

Welcome Clark and Will Todd were arrested Monday for striking and cutting with intent to kill. Trial set for today. A Negro man, name unknown, was fined $30 in the police court for carrying concealed weapons. A man by the name of Cummins from Pulaski, was fined $25 and given 10 days in jail on the same charge.

Early yesterday morning our business men, some of them accompanied by their wives, began rushing to the depot and by the appointed time for the special train to arrive, a large crowd had gathered. About 35 or 40 of our people went over and as they were of the most enterprising kind, Lancaster will make quite a show in the city of Louisville, which we all love.

Dr. W. S. Beazley and J. A. Beazley are in Louisville, the latter to attend the Undertakers' Convention. Miss Pearl Bettis went over to Lexington to enter Kentucky University. Misses Fannie and Bettie West went to Louisville yesterday to spend a week or two with friends. Miss Hattie Jones, of Buckeye, has been visiting Miss Mollie Herndon at Kirksville. Messdames Robert Embry and Jno. Anderson went to Louisville yesterday. Little Margaret Merritt has been quite sick. Jno. Riffe, the hustling machine man, is in town.

Is a Candidate for Railroad Commissioner for the 2d District, subject to the will of the democracy.

THE four candidates for United States Senator spoke at Maysville Monday to a large audience and while each acquitted himself creditably, Hon. Jas. B. McCreary's speech was by far the best made. Mr. Wheeler assailed Gov. McCreary's political record but got the worst of it for doing so. The ex-governor stated that he had been voting the democratic ticket before Wheeler was born and was working for the democratic party of this State during the stormy times at Frankfort while the gentleman from the first district was taking his ease in Washington and drawing a $5,000 salary. Mr. McCreary's speech was loudly applauded and it was readily apparent that the crowd was favorable to him. Everything points to the election of the gentleman from Madison, who made a model governor as well as a model Congressman and none realize his strength more than the three gentlemen who oppose him. They will meet again in debate at Covington on the night of Sept. 30, Lexington, Oct. 5; Shelbyville, Oct. 14; Elizabethtown, Oct. 21; Mt. Sterling, Oct. 28; Paducah, night of November 4.

CZOLGOSZ, the miserable brute who assassinated President McKinley, was found guilty of murder in the first degree by a jury in the supreme court in Buffalo Tuesday and the date for his electrocution has been set for last week in October. The trial consumed eight hours and 26 minutes, and covered a period of two days. Practically all of the time was occupied in presenting evidence, which proved conclusively the guilt of the prisoner. The attorneys for the defense did not offer any testimony on behalf of their client. Czolgosz showed no signs of emotion when he heard the verdict. He maintained his indifferent and unconcerned air. The country will breathe easier and feel better after this anarchist has been sent to kingdom come, but would feel better still if every one of his cursed kind could accompany Czolgosz on his journey to perdition and damnation.

In his speech at Maysville Monday, Judge Cantrill referred to the organization of the republican party in Kentucky as composed chiefly of mountain moonshiners, star-route contractors, Negroes and a few renegade democrats. There are some decent republicans, but they are few and far between. The renegade democrats who went over to the republican party always turned out to be applicants for Federal patronage or candidates for office. Judge Cantrill seems to have diagnosed the case pretty thoroughly.

LOOK out for some enormous bills from those who in any way served President McKinley. Congress will pay all of the expenses and the doctors, who seemed to be guessing at what they were doing while waiting on the grand and good man, are expected to present accounts out of all proportion, while all in any way connected with the funeral will come in for a share of the appropriation.

WE take it all back. The Danville Advocate is democratic to the core, dyed-in-the-wool and a yard wide. We know this to be true because it says in a double-headed column and a quarter editorial that it is a democratic paper. We extend a hand of welcome to the old sinner, which we are glad to say has returned to the fold.

THE secret orders are fast eliminating the whisky element from membership. The grand lodge of Odd Fellows in session at Indianapolis decided that a man who holds a hotel that has a bar in it is not eligible to membership, and if he is already admitted, he may take out withdrawal cards.

POLITICAL.

Boyle county republicans may put out a ticket or a part of one tomorrow. Fayette county republicans have named Oct. 5 as the date to put out a full county and city ticket.

A special issue of postage stamps commemorating the life of the late President McKinley is contemplated.

Argument in the Pratt-Breckinridge contest for the office of attorney general of Kentucky was begun before the court of appeals.

An anonymous New Yorker has sent in $6,150 to the treasury department "conscience fund," declaring that duties had not been fully paid.

Bruce Haldeman was appointed by Gov. Beckham a member of the Board of Visitors of the Kentucky Institute for the Blind, to succeed the late Zack Phelps.

Resolutions of the Pennsylvania League of republican clubs suggest as a cure for anarchy that the newspapers be stopped from roasting republican officials.

The postoffices at Barbourville and Williamstown will be advanced from the fourth to presidential class October 1. The salaries will be $1,100 and $1,000 respectively per annum.

Alabama Negroes held a convention in Birmingham and resolved to contest the new constitution before the United States supreme court. Speakers advocated migration to Porto Rico or the Philippines if the constitution should be approved.

Upon the return to Washington of Civil Service Commissioner Procter it is understood he will renew the recommendation for the removal of Internal Revenue Collector Sapp. It is believed the president will make the change shortly after the election.

A Washington dispatch says that every indication points to the fact that Commissioner of Internal Revenue John W. Yerkes will remain in his present position and will also be the Washington representative of Kentucky Republican politics.

Garrard prohibitionists have nominated the following portion of a ticket: John Ison, representative; P. S. Terrell, county judge; R. A. Stone, county clerk; O. J. Hendren, assessor; Cyrus Eason, jailor; magistrates, O. T. Wallace, Wm. Christopher and Morris Calliso.

If McCreary were elected to the Senate, according to Judge Cantrill, "he would remain there until his hair turned gray." In thus cracking at the ex-governor's good bald head, isn't Judge Cantrill to employ a Hibernian paradox, hitting below the belt?—Louisville Times.

SOME of our patrons are ignoring statements sent from this office. These accounts will be placed in an officer's hands soon and they won't be so mum about the matter. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

A 16 months old child of Robert Livesay died Sunday.

The R. A. Chapter elected their officers at Monday's meeting.

Wyatt and Willis Allen and E. M. Azbill were indicted on the charge of shooting and cutting Squire Gatlin, who remains in a critical condition.

Burials near Presbyterian church have been discontinued on account of remonstrance from citizens in that locality. It is thought wells were being contaminated. The six or seven bodies buried there will more than likely be removed to the old cemetery.

Misfortune seems to follow Squire Gatlin, who is lying at the point of death at the residence of John Pennington. The squire's house was destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon, when only three of the small children were at home. Caught from cook stove; nothing saved.

Last Saturday, Pete Percival fired two shots into a patch of weeds at what he thought was a panther or wildcat, threw away his gun and ran. Upon investigation it was discovered that he had badly wounded George Childers, a neighbor, who was on the creek fishing. The wounded man will not recover.

Tomorrow, Saturday, at 1 P. M. in the court-house, the democrats of Rockcastle will meet in mass convention for the purpose of considering the advisability of nominating candidates for the county offices. Quite a number are in favor of nominating a full ticket, about an equal number are opposed to any nominations at all except for one or of the minor offices. All democrats interested should come to the meeting and let it be known what the majority want. Don't stay at home and say what ought to be done, but come out and help do it your way.

E. B. Cox is out once more. Thomas Miller is out from Lancaster. Mrs. Susan Henderson has moved to Parksville. Mrs. Annie Miller is in from Washington. Dr. W. A. Brown was up from Parksville. Because a permit has been granted to open a coal yard on Aspen Avenue, a fashionable residence street of Richmond, Dr. G. W. Evans, who sold it to the town on condition that it be used only as a drive and residence thoroughfare, will bring suit against the city for $5,000 damages and the recovery of the street.

John Houpp, James Rue and Edward Wood, boys, ranging in age from 10 to 14 years, fell from the top of a cliff at High Bridge to the river bank below. A distance of 75 feet. They were playing near the edge of the cliff when it suddenly caved in. Houpp's recovery is doubtful and the others are seriously though not fatally injured.

The Walters Collegiate Institute of Richmond has filed articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of State. It grows out of the compromise of the Central University matter and takes its name from the Hon. S. P. Walters. The incorporators are A. R. Burnam, J. Stone Walker, Bennett H. Young, John B. Chenault, W. R. Shackelford and others.

A Burgin dispatch says that a burglar entered the residence of Deputy County Clerk Thomas M. Curd and was rifling the drawers where valuables were secreted when the noise awakened the family, who attempted to capture him. The burglar passed into the front room, locking the door in the face of his pursuers, and escaped through a window into Main Street. William Chambers, a grandson, fired four shots at the fleeing form from an upstairs window, but the marauder escaped.

THERE are still some 20 or 30 guests at Crab Orchard Springs who can't tear themselves away from the clever host, Mr. J. B. Willis, and his excellent wife.

THE fire company was called out Tuesday afternoon to save Mr. John J. McRoberts' residence on East Main Street, but the flames were extinguished before the ladders arrived on the scene, notwithstanding they responded quickly. A spark had fallen on the roof and set fire to the shingles, destroying several dozen of them. Aside from this no damage was done.

DIED OF HER BURNS.—Mrs. Farris R. Feland, of Lawrenceburg, who was reported in our last as having been badly burned by the explosion of a lamp, died of her injuries. She was a daughter of Mrs. Virginia King, of this county, and was a most excellent lady. Her mother, who was with her at the time of the explosion, received burns that will more than likely prove fatal. It was reported yesterday that she was dead, but later information was that she was barely alive.

GOOD WORK.—The following Richmond gentlemen came down Wednesday and assisted Gilkison Lodge, No. 132, A. O. U. W., in initiating four candidates into the mysteries of that order: J. L. Flora, B. Jouett, L. J. Frazee, Robert Golden, A. T. Parrish, W. P. Baxter, J. R. Sims, C. H. Pigge, C. E. Woods. The work the visiting gentlemen did was of a very high order and our members were delighted with their Richmond brothers. Gilkison lodge is growing rapidly and bids fair to soon be among the best of that order in Kentucky.

PUBLIC SALE OF NEGROES.—On Thursday, the 1st day of January, 1846, will be sold at public auction, at the late residence of John Rout, deceased, in Garrard county, five miles West of Lexington, 15 or 16 likely Negroes, consisting of men, women and children. Terms made known on day of sale. John Rout, Jr., and Wesley Rout.

The above appeared in hand-bill form in many public places 55 years ago. Mr. John W. Rout, who spent a few days with Mr. Millard F. Rout in Garrard, found the bill which he showed us. It was printed by Zimmerman & Barbee, Danville, Ky.

BIG FOX HUNT AT CRAB ORCHARD.—The INTERIOR JOURNAL is asked to announce that the Kentucky Beagle Club will be organized at Crab Orchard Springs in November by Gen. W. H. Gentry, of Lexington, who has an interesting article on the subject in the "American Field" of Sept. 14, containing references to a number of local celebrities in the fox hunting fraternity. We will publish extracts from Gen. Gentry's article in our next issue and bespeak for it a careful reading by all lovers of fox hunting here and hereabouts. Manager J. B. Willis, of Crab Orchard Springs, and his excellent wife are making great preparations to entertain the club.

A MISTAKE.—Through mistake we received twice as many of one number of boys' fleeced shirts and drawers; the 35c grade. We have instructions from the mill to sell them. They go at 24c per garment, 45c a suit. Their loss is your gain. Severance & Sons.

MARION SQUIRREL, the magnificent black saddle stallion owned by J. R. & E. H. Beazley, died yesterday afternoon from locked bowels. They valued him at $800 and the loss falls heavily on the owners who had taken great care of the splendid animal. They refused $700 for him only a short time ago.

STOLE HIS MONEY.—Dr. J. R. Steele, one of Junction City's clever and efficient physicians, had his pocketbook, watch and chain, together with some money, stolen while asleep at home. The thief entered through a window. The Junction City postoffice was visited the same night, but only a few coppers were found.

A LIFE SENTENCE.—Eugene Montgomery, who got a death sentence at the last term of the Boyle circuit court, was given another trial and yesterday the jury brought in a verdict of life in the penitentiary. He was charged with killing his little step-daughter for her insurance. The following Lincoln county gentlemen served on the jury: Messrs. J. B. Owens, A. C. Sine, Edgar Wilkinson, O. P. Huffman, Grant North, W. H. Dadderar, Adam Pence, Ansel Baugh, W. P. Carson and W. M. Matheby. The Boyle gentlemen were Messrs. Kemp and Prewitt.

CAME TO BLOWS.—The INTERIOR JOURNAL loves peace and advocates peace at all times and is sorry that men should fight over what appears in its columns. In our last issue we stated on what we deemed and still deem good authority that the republican nominee for sheriff was heard to say that he felt no grief concerning Goebel; that his "d-d heart ought to be cut out." Mr. Menefee, who is the republican nominee, for some cause, asked Mr. M. S. Baughman, the democratic nominee for the same office, if he was instrumental in having the article inserted, when Mr. Baughman promptly told him no. "You did say those very words, however," Mr. Baughman added. Mr. Menefee called him a liar, an eye witness informs us, whereupon Mr. Baughman struck him in the face. Friends stepped in and hostilities were brought to an end. Several hours later Mr. Menefee saw the editor of this paper on the street and asked his authority for the statement concerning what he had been quoted as saying about Gov. Goebel. Having heard Mr. Baughman say that he had heard Mr. Menefee say just what we had quoted, and Mr. Baughman having told Mr. Menefee that he gave us the information, we complied with the request and told him that Mr. Baughman was one of the gentlemen who had heard him make such a statement. He wanted further authority which we respectfully declined to give. "I have never given utterance to such an expression, but here is what I did say early in Mr. Goebel's campaign," Mr. Menefee stated: "If Goebel's heart had been cut out the day he killed Sandford, politics in Kentucky would be in better shape today." Mr. Menefee also told us that we had treated him very badly in this campaign, something we have not intentionally done nor do we desire to do. Personally we feel very kindly toward Mr. Menefee, but we despise his politics and we shall do our utmost, in a fair and honorable way, to defeat him. A democrat for no other reason than that we believe in its principles, we propose to make a manly and hard fight against the republican ticket in general and as Mr. Menefee is on that ticket he may expect to come in for a share of what we shall say about the republican party and its nominees.

In justice to Mr. M. S. Baughman we will state that he was neither instrumental in having the item in our last paper which caused the trouble, printed, nor did he have knowledge that it would appear.

THE special train to the Inter-State Fair at Louisville was pretty well filled when it left here yesterday morning. A coach containing about 100 Lancaster gentlemen bore a streamer with the following words: "Lancaster's Commercial Club."

HUBBLE.

Elder A. R. Moore will fill his pulpit here Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

W. H. Underwood is buying some good calves at $12 to $16. M. B. Eubanks sold his wheat to J. H. Baughman & Co. at 70c. Jos. Sutton has rented the John Bright farm for $375.

Agricultural, Horticultural, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post-graduate courses of study are also provided, leading each to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers more than thirty professors and instructors.

COUNTY APPOINTEES receive tuition, room rent in dormitory, fuel and lights, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses. The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern.

The last Legislature appropriated $30,000 for a college home for young women and a drill hall and gymnasium has been provided for men. Military tactics and science are fully provided for, as required by Congress.

Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college to supply.
